Gawler Christmas Pageant:

RCGL—why is it significant?

Can we promote Rotary in an environmental friendly way?

Jenny and Steve Mc. are waiting and really keen to hear your great concepts for our pageant entry.

RC Gawler Light Community Group

Feedback Urgently Needed for Darryl:

Preferred primary way to group our club: Geographic or Interest Group (E.g. Youth, The disadvantaged, refugees)

Meeting together frequency???

Secondary Focus Group: (Eg Cambodia, Youth Exchange, Homeless, RARE)

Meeting together frequency????

Apologies

Steve McLachlan – Shelterbag presentation at RC Unley

Grant Buik – Kitten caring duties

President Darryl Matthews:

Opened meeting & welcomed visitors, Taron & Denise.

Last Friday Roger, Bev, Steve & Julie did Newbold Stud BBQ – thanks!

Bunnings BBQ – Sunday 7th, 2 x more volunteers needed – if anyone can help let Darryl know

Q&A Audience Monday 9th October – Free bus service, but you need to register yourself.

Meeting 24th October will be at Dick's for a BBQ & Social night. Needs an organiser – Dick has 2 BBQs, bring your own salad, help Dick set up. Can we car pool?

Village Fair – Last night Darryl went to the RC Gawler Meeting. He spoke with Steve Barilla – he will send out an email shortly for details. Steve thanked Bron for coming up with the flyer for the fair.

Christmas Puddings Rotary Club Seaford- should we consider a club order?

Regionalisation – by 29 October we need to submit a survey on our preferred community group. Darryl will hand out the questions to be considered by the Committees tonight. Darryl will collate, & finalise by 17th October submitting the form for the club.

Induction of Denise Fitzgerald

Denise was duly inducted into the club and also received her badge.

YEP – Taron

This week Taron went to Semaphore with his host Dad Graham. It was very beautiful & lunch was very good

Today Taron celebrates his 17th Birthday today! There was cake and a rousing version of Happy Birthday. Taron also received his club shirt.

Reports

Dave Cockshell - Playgrounds

David W and David Cockshell will mark the playground ready for dismantling this week.

Tuesday 1pm to start disassembly – all welcome to assist

A T45H bit is needed for the disassembly – does anyone have one?

Removal of posts – 3 plans! At a last resort the contractor will take them out on Monday.

Dave will meet with RC Mount Barker this week to get everything organised.

Committee Meetings

All groups worked through the survey for selection of the community groups.

Sergeant Bron

There were no “fines” tonight, in honour of Taron's birthday – thank you Taron!!

Presidents Closing Remarks:

Darryl thanked everyone who came along tonight and once again wished Taron a happy birthday.
