SERVE TO CHANGE LIVES

Guest Speaker: Steve McLachlan—On line Quizzing

- Gave an overview of the strategy for holding an on line quiz meeting
- When Salisbury City Rotaract completed their Quiz Online, they allowed individuals and teams to compete. This would work, just ensure you record these down. All the members of one team would need to be in the same space physical space. The chat function is a great way to record team names.
- Scoring can be based on an honour system. – hopefully people could be honest. They would then record what they got each round in the chat and also speak their score when request via microphone. This is what was used as it was a social evening for their members
- Will need a trial at a social night before proceeding with a fund raiser
- Jenny Leadbeater and Bron Anderson volunteered to form a team to tackle the technological challenges of an online trivia night
- Rob Eley recommended selling the password for a way to make it a fundraiser

Community Service: Jenny Leadbeater

- Successfully sought volunteers to fill the footy roster
- Steve McLachlan volunteered to champion the Mens and Mates Breakfast on 12Sep21
- Knock down event on 26Sep21
- Has a meeting with the Show Committee to resolve participation for the Club with show carparking—will circulate roster as soon as details are agreed

International: Duncan Power

- In the near future will provide an overview of an entrepreneurial scheme under consideration
- Gave a talk to the Adelaide University Rotaract Club—invited them to reciprocate
